Commencement Walkthrough Petition

Stanford University

Submit the completed form to your department.

Please fill out, download, sign, and submit to your department student services office.

This is a petition to attend the department/school Commencement ceremony in June. This is NOT an application to graduate nor is it a petition to withdraw an application to graduate. The deadline to submit an application to graduate is listed on the University Academic Calendar (https://registrar.stanford.edu/academic-calendar) or on the Registrar's Graduation web site (https://registrar.stanford.edu/students/graduation).

Instructions: Complete this form and submit it to your department or program administrator.

Minimum Requirements for Eligibility:

- Undergraduates should have at least 160 units toward graduation and have department/school approval.
- M.A./M.S. students should have completed at least 36 units and department/school approval.
- Engineer students need department/school approval.
- Ph.D. students should have completed their oral defense and have department/school approval.

Commencement information is available from Stanford Events at http://commencement.stanford.edu.

Please address questions concerning this form to your department.
